

The 2015 “Minnie” Disney Challenge Official Rules

Dear Challengers,

I can't believe we actually did TWO Disney Challenges this year! (Well, one and a half, really.) We have been itching to do a Downtown Disney Challenge so The “Minnie” Disney Challenge idea was the perfect setting to try out something completely different. We have brought back some of your favorite categories, as well as a couple brand new ones. We hope you enjoy it.

A couple of years ago, I realized how few people actually read these rules all the way through like they are supposed to. Especially this part that looks so unimportant. So what better place to stick a brand new hidden challenge than right here? If you keep a keen eye out, you might notice one question missing from The Challenge. Figure out what number that is and look at the same directory you will use to find the finish line. Find the location that number corresponds to. The Event Crew will be hanging out there between 1:00pm & 3:00pm. Find us and ask “May I have the missing question?” and you will be given an opportunity to earn some serious extra points. Good Luck!!!

~Dave

How To Play

As you may know (or are about to find out) The Disney Challenge is a strategic-team-trivia-scavenger-hunt-style event with a warped sense of humor. This contest will challenge your knowledge of Disney lore, your observation skills, wits, luck and above all, your ability to work together as a team. This challenge will not necessarily be won by the biggest Disney buffs, but by the team that uses strategy and works best together.

Teams - Teams consist of 3 to 5 players. All members of a team must participate in the challenge and anyone who is not playing may not be with your team during the time of the Challenge (unless they are under the age of 10).

The Challenge Packet - Each team will receive a "Challenge Packet", a manila envelope containing things you will need to play. Inside you will find the "Game Sheet" (an 11 page, 50 question challenge), these Official Rules, and perhaps a few other goodies you will need to play.

Points - Each question is assigned a point value based on the difficulty level of the question. Questions are worth from 1-5 points (for the most part). The point value of each question will be written in (blue) at the end of the question. Be as detailed and specific in your answers as possible to obtain maximum points. Partial points may be awarded for partially correct answers. All of the answers to this challenge can be found within the Downtown Disney District, the Hotels, and The Esplanade. There are a total of 302 possible points to earn.

Question Types - Challenge questions will fall into one of several categories. Some of these categories are:

General Questions - These will make up the majority of the 50 questions. They may pertain to anything in or about Downtown Disney.

Example Question: How many Hotels are in The Disneyland Resort?
(2 points)

3

Bonus Questions - These are additional questions pertaining to the last question asked and will be found immediately following the answer space of that question. They may be worth more, less, or the same as the original question.

ACTION! An action question will require one or more of your team members to complete a task. Proof of completion will usually be obtaining something or taking a photo. Anything obtained for an Action question must be turned in with your Challenge Packet (unless otherwise specified) at the end of the challenge.

PHOTO CHALLENGE. A Photo Challenge is a series of pictures with one common question. Be careful to write down exactly what the instructions ask you to.

PHOTO DISNEY BINGO (aka DINGO) Bingo played with a digital camera. See page 6 of the Game Sheet for the specific rules. Remember, only 1 camera per team may be used for this challenge.

PICTURE THIS! A picture will follow a Picture This questions. Your job is to write down where the picture, or the object in the picture, is located, (or occasionally something about the picture itself). The more specific you are in your answer, the more points you can earn. There are extra spaces for this reason.

COMPLETE THIS PHRASE. Part of a phrase, either spoken or written, is given to you. You must complete the rest of that sentence or phrase.

JOHANNA'S PHOTOSHOP FRENZY. Johanna has had some fun Photoshopping out something in a photo, or splitting something up. You need to figure out what is missing, put something back together, etc.

LET ME TAKE A #SELFIE. (New This Year) Take a Selfie with one or more of your team members and the object asked for. Like DINGO, only 1 camera per team may be used for this challenge. (However, this may be a different camera than the one used for DINGO.)

Secret Bonus Points - These are what make The Disney Challenge very interesting - points you can earn, but have no idea exactly how to earn them. What I can tell you is that they will be assigned for doing specific things or completing certain tasks and they may just give you a better chance of winning. In case of a tie, secret bonus points will be VERY VALUABLE!!!

Scoring and Winning - The object of the challenge is to accumulate the most total points (regular and secret bonus). In case of a tie, the winning team will be the team who has been awarded the most secret bonus points. If there is still a tie, the winner will be the team who answered the most 5-point questions correctly, 4-point questions, etc. and so on until a winner is chosen.

Crossing the Finish Line - The "Minnie" Disney Challenge will end promptly at 4:00 PM. The location to turn in your Challenge Packet is a puzzle with the answer being the location of the Finish Line. Your entire team must be present when you turn your challenge packet in. Place the Game Sheet and anything else specified in the game sheet or these rules inside the Challenge Packet. DO NOT BE LATE! For every minute you are late your team will be penalized 1 point.

The Awards Ceremony - After the challenge is over, the Game Sheets are scored and a winner is declared. This takes the Event Crew some time to complete, so the award ceremony is held around 7:00pm in the Picnic Area outside the security gates. (Depending on the number of teams entered, this time may be changed. All announcements regarding the award ceremony will be made at the finish line.)

Emergencies - In case of an emergency, there is a Disney Challenge Hotline, which will be carried by the Event Crew all day. The number is (661) 510-2387.

The Rules

As stated before, this is a contest of strategy, and as such, there are not many rules. However, in order to make the challenge fair and fun for everyone involved, please abide by the following rules:

- Once the challenge has begun, no member of your team may leave The Disneyland Resort for any reason between 12pm and 4pm. (Getting kicked out will be considered leaving the resort.)
- The “Minnie” Disney Challenge is intended to be a fun and team building experience for all involved. Please use good sportsmanship and courtesy to other Challengers, Crew Members, Park Guests and Cast Members that day. Cheating, using an unfair advantage (such as a cast member friend, calling friends, etc.) and any other unsportsmanlike or un-Disney-like conduct will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification and perhaps ejection from the resort.
- Only your team members or the Event Staff may write on the game sheet and at no time can you show the Game Sheet to anyone not associated with The Disney Challenge unless specifically notated on the challenge itself. Asking cast members for help is acceptable and may be necessary, however, showing them the challenge will be grounds for disqualification. Also, just a warning: cast members get bored and sometimes like to lie. Ask them at your own risk.
- Stealing answers from other challengers is not allowed. Asking for or trading answers is just stupid.
- Everything your team is required to obtain during the contest this year is free of charge. Stealing anything is unacceptable.

A Note on the Rules- The Disneyland Resort is a big place, and teams cannot be supervised throughout the day. The Disney Challenge is played on the Honor System that all terms laid out in these Official Rules will be followed. The Disney Challenge was designed to be as much fun as it is challenging. Breaking the rules will take the fun out of it for everyone. If you see another team breaking these rules, please report it to the Event Crew. If any team is found to have broken any of these rules, or any team falsely accuses another team of doing so, those teams may lose points or possibly be disqualified.

Good Luck and Have Fun!
