2017: "The Return Of The..."

OFFICIAL RULES

Dear Challengers,

We are back to Disney California Adventure for another edition of The Disney Challenge. (Our third Challenge in DCA!) We are forever grateful that you take the time to come play our little game, and even more grateful that you take the time to read these rules. So with no further ado...here are The Official Rules.

~Dave

How To Play

As you may know (or are about to find out), The Disney Challenge is a strategic-team-trivia-scavenger-hunt-style event with a warped sense of humor. This contest will challenge your knowledge of Disney lore, your observation skills, wits, luck, and above all, your ability to work together as a team. This challenge will not necessarily be won by the biggest Disney buffs, but by the team that uses strategy and works best together.

Teams - Teams consist of 3 to 5 players. All members of a team must participate in the challenge and anyone who is not playing may not be with your team during the time of the Challenge (unless they are under the age of 10).

The Challenge Packet - Each team will receive a "Challenge Packet", a manila envelope containing things you will need to play. Inside you will find the "Game Sheet" (a 16 page, 100 question challenge), these Official Rules, and perhaps a few other goodies that will help you complete your Challenge.

Points - Each question is assigned a point value based on the difficulty level of the question. Questions are worth 1-5 points (for the most part). The point value of each question will be written in (blue) at the end of the question. Be as detailed and specific in your answers as possible to obtain maximum points. Partial points may be awarded for partially correct answers. All of the answers to this challenge can be found inside the park. There are a total of 468 possible points.

Question Types - Challenge questions will fall into one of several categories. These categories are:

General Questions - These will make up the majority of the 100 questions. They may pertain to anything in or about the park, its attractions, shows, lands, history, etc.

Example Question: How many happy haunts reside in the Haunted Mansion? (2 points)

Bonus Questions - These are additional questions pertaining to the last question asked and will be found immediately following the answer space of that question. They may be worth more, less, or the same as the original question.

ACTION! – NOW WITH VIDEO!!! An action question will require one or more of your team members to complete a task. Proof of completion will usually be obtaining an item, or taking a photo or video of something. All of your team's photos and videos must be on the same camera/phone and will be viewed at The Finish Line (unless otherwise specified). Anything obtained must be turned in with your Challenge Packet (again, unless otherwise specified) at the end of the challenge.

PHOTO CHALLENGE. A Photo Challenge is a series of pictures with one common question. Be careful to write down exactly what the instructions ask you to.

PHOTO DISNEY BINGO (aka DINGO) – NOW WITH VIDEO!!! Bingo played with a digital camera. See page 6 of the Game Sheet for the specific rules. Remember, only one camera per team may be used for this challenge and that camera must be able to shoot video.

PICTURE THIS! A photo will follow a Picture This question. Your job is to write down where the picture, or the object in the picture, is located (or occasionally something about the picture itself). The more specific you are in your answer, the more points you can earn. There are extra spaces for this reason.

COMPLETE THIS PHRASE. Part of a phrase, either spoken or written, is given to you. You must complete the rest of that sentence or phrase.

WHERE DID I HEAR THAT? You will be given a quote and you will need to figure out where it was said and, if possible, who said it.

MATCH UP! Match the words, phrases, or characters on the left with the corresponding correct answers on the right either by drawing lines or by writing the answers in the blanks provided.

Secret Bonus Points - These are what make the Challenge very interesting - points you can earn, but have no idea exactly how to earn them. What I can tell you is that they will be assigned for doing specific things or completing certain tasks and they may just give you a better chance of winning. In case of a tie, secret bonus points will be VERY VALUABLE!!!

Scoring and Winning - The object of the challenge is to accumulate the most total points (regular and secret bonus). In case of a tie, the winning team will be the team who has been awarded the most secret bonus points. If there is still a tie, the winner will be the team who answered the most 5-point questions correctly, 4-point questions, etc. and so on until a winner is chosen.

Crossing the Finish Line - The challenge will end promptly at 4:00 PM. The location to turn in your Challenge Packet is a puzzle with the answer being the location of the Finish Line. Your entire team must be present when you turn your challenge packet in. Place the Game Sheet and anything else specified in the game sheet or these rules inside the Challenge Packet. DO NOT BE LATE! For every minute you are late your team will be penalized 1 point.

The Awards Ceremony - After the challenge is over, the Game Sheets are scored and a winner is declared. This takes the Event Crew some time to complete, so the award ceremony is held around 7:00pm in the Picnic Area outside the security gates. (Depending on the number of teams entered, this time may be changed. All announcements regarding the award ceremony will be made at the finish line.)

Emergencies - In case of an emergency, call Dave – 661-510-2387. (No penalty!)

The Rules

As stated before, this is a contest of strategy, and as such, there are not many rules. However, in order to make the challenge fair and fun for everyone involved, please abide by the following:

- Once the challenge has begun, no member of your team may leave the park for any reason between 10am and 4pm. (Getting kicked out will be considered leaving the park.)
- The Disney Challenge is intended to be a fun, team building experience for all involved. Please use good sportsmanship and courtesy to other Challengers, Crew Members, Park Guests and Cast Members that day. Cheating, using an unfair advantage (such as a cast member friend, special fast passes, calling friends, etc.) and any other unsportsmanlike or un-Disney-like conduct will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification and perhaps ejection from the park.
- Only your team members or the Event Staff may write on the game sheet and at no time can you show the Game Sheet to anyone not associated with The Disney Challenge unless specifically notated on the challenge itself. Asking cast members for help is acceptable and may be necessary, but showing them the challenge will be grounds for disqualification. Also, just a warning: cast members get bored and sometimes like to lie. Ask them at your own risk.
- Stealing answers from other challengers is not allowed. Asking for or trading answers is just stupid.
- Everything your team is required to obtain during the contest this year is free of charge. Stealing anything is unacceptable.
- Front of the line passes, faked injuries, or anything giving your team an unfair time advantage that other teams may not have will not be allowed. If you have a legitimate injury, or a questionable advantage, please speak with Dave prior to the beginning of the challenge. This is a physical as well as mental game and a point handicap may have to be imposed. Also many of the questions from the attractions can be found in the queues so you might be doing yourself a disservice in jumping the line.

A Note on the Rules- The Disneyland Resort is a big place, and teams cannot be supervised throughout the day. The challenge is played on the Honor System that all terms laid out in these Official Game Rules will be followed. The Disney Challenge was designed to be as much fun as it is challenging. Breaking the rules will take the fun out if it for everyone. If any team is found to have broken any of these rules they may lose points or possibly be disqualified.

Good Luck and Have Fun!
