

The 2019 Super Disney Challenge

OFFICIAL RULES

The following pages will be the most detailed set of rules your team will be provided with and are specific to The 2019 Super Disney Challenge. A brief, one page overview will be included in your Challenge Packet (explained below). You may want to print this and bring it with you the day of The Disney Challenge for quick reference. (Especially if this is your first time playing.) Please note that if these rules are not followed exactly, your team may risk disqualification or a reduction in points. (Not to be a bummer here, but you'd be surprised how many teams never even read these rules!)

How To Play

As you may know (or are about to find out), The Disney Challenge is a strategic-team-trivia- scavenger-hunt-style event with a warped sense of humor. This contest will challenge your knowledge of Disney lore, your observation skills, wits, luck and above all, your ability to work together as a team. This challenge will not necessarily be won by the biggest Disney buffs, but by the team that uses strategy and works best together.

Teams - Teams consist of 3 to 5 players. All members of a team must participate in the challenge and anyone who is not playing may not be with your team during the time of the Challenge (unless they are under the age of 10).

Check-In & the Starting Line – Check-in begins at 9:00am. Your entire team must be present to check-in. Look for the Event Crew member with the clipboard who will confirm your team's details and direct you to the team photo location. ALL TEAMS MUST BE CHECKED IN BY 9:30AM. At 9:45 we will take a group photo and the pre-challenge announcements will be made. The Disney Challenge will begin at 10:00am. This year, the Starting Line will be:

- Galactic Grill in Tomorrowland, Disneyland (aka Tomorrowland Terrace.) (Come early for a delicious breakfast and some pre Disney Challenge bonding with the Event Crew and other teams.)
- DO NOT BE LATE! Teams arriving past 9:30am will not be checked in until after The Disney Challenge begins, or possibly disqualified.
- SPECIFIC TO 2019 - This year's game will have 3 different starting/finish lines. Each "Part" or "Round" will be played in a different park or area. The above information is for Part 1. Starting/finish lines for Parts 2 and 3 will be revealed during the challenge.

The Challenge Packet – After the pre-challenge announcements, each team will receive their "Challenge Packet", a manila envelope containing things you will need to play. Inside you will find the "Game Sheet" for Part 1 (an 8 page, 50 question challenge), an "All Day" DINGO sheet, a Rules Overview sheet, and perhaps a few other goodies that will help you complete your Challenge.

Points - Each question is assigned a point value based on the difficulty level of that question. Questions are worth 1-5 points (for the most part). The point value of each question will be written in (blue) at the end of the question. Be as detailed and specific in your answers as possible to obtain maximum points. Partial points may be awarded for partially correct answers. All of the answers to this challenge can be found inside the designated playing area.

Question Types – Challenge questions will fall into one of several categories. Some or all of the following categories will appear on The Disney Challenge. These categories are:

- General Questions - These will make up the majority of the questions. They may pertain to anything in or about the parks, attractions, shows, lands, history, etc.
- Bonus Questions - These are additional questions pertaining to the last question asked and will be found immediately following the answer space of that question. They may be worth more, less, or the same as the original question.
- ACTION! An action question will require one or more of your team members to complete a task. Proof of completion will usually be obtaining an item or taking a photo or video of something. All photos and videos must be taken on 1 camera and will be viewed at the Finish Line (unless otherwise specified). Anything obtained must be turned in with your Challenge Packet (again, unless otherwise specified) at the end of the challenge.
- PHOTO CHALLENGE. A Photo Challenge is a series of pictures with one common theme. Be careful to write down exactly what the instructions ask.
- BINGO. Bingo played with a digital camera. Photos and videos will need to be taken and items may be specific or random in nature. Remember, only 1 camera per team may be used for this challenge and all photos must be taken the day of the challenge within the designated playing area.
- PICTURE THIS! A photo will follow a Picture This questions. Your job is to write down where the picture, or the object in the picture, is located, (or occasionally answer something about the picture itself). The more specific you are in your answer, the more points you can earn. There are extra answer spaces for this reason.
- COMPLETE THIS PHRASE. Part of a phrase, either spoken or written, is given to you. You must complete the rest of that sentence or phrase.
- WHERE DID I HEAR THAT? You will be given a quote and you will need to figure out where it was said AND who said it.
- MATCH UP! Match the words, phrases, photos, or characters on the left with the corresponding correct answers on the right either by drawing lines or by writing the answers in the blanks provided.
- JOHANNA'S PHOTOSHOP TRENZ! Johanna has had some fun Photoshopping something out of (or into) some photos. You need to figure out what is missing (or added) to each photo.

Secret Bonus Points - These are what make the Challenge very interesting - points you can earn, but have no idea exactly how to earn them. What I can tell you is that they will be assigned for doing specific things or completing certain tasks and they may just give your team better chance of winning. In case of a tie, secret bonus points will be VERY VALUABLE!!!

Scoring and Winning - The object of the challenge is to accumulate the most total points (regular, bonus, and secret bonus). In case of a tie, the winning team will be the team who has been awarded the most secret bonus points. If there is still a tie, the winner will be the team who answered the most 5-point questions correctly, 4-point questions, etc. and so on until a winner is chosen.

Crossing the Finish Line/Finding the next Starting Line - Each Part will be played in a different park or area and each round will have its own Starting and Finish lines.

- Part 1 will be played in Disneyland from 10am-1pm
- Part 2 will be played in Disney California Adventure from 1pm-4pm
- Part 3 will be played in Downtown Disney from 4pm-7pm

All information on where to go and when to turn in your packets will be disclosed the day of the challenge. Your entire team must be present each time you turn in and pick up your challenge packet. Place the Game Sheet and anything else specified on the game sheet or the Rules Overview inside the Challenge Packet. DO NOT BE LATE! For every minute you are late to each finish line, your team will be penalized 1 point.

The Awards Ceremony - After the challenge is over, the Game Sheets are scored and a winner is declared. This takes the Event Crew some time to complete, so the award ceremony will be held around 9:00pm in the Picnic Area outside the parks. (Depending on the number of teams entered, this time may be changed. All announcements regarding the award ceremony will be made at the Final Finish Line.)

Emergencies - In case of an emergency, there is a Disney Challenge Hotline, which will be carried by the Event Crew all day. The number is (661) 510-2387.

The Rules

As stated before, this is a contest of strategy, and as such, there are not many rules. However, in order to make the challenge fair and fun for everyone involved, please abide by the following rules:

- Once the challenge has begun, no member of your team may leave the designated playing area for any reason until your Challenge Packet has been turned in. (Getting kicked out will be considered leaving the designated playing area!)
- The Disney Challenge is intended to be a fun, team-building experience for all involved. Please use good sportsmanship and courtesy to other Challengers, Event Crew Members, Cast Members and especially Park Guests that day. Cheating, using an unfair advantage such as outside help, and any other unsportsmanlike or un-Disney-like conduct will not be tolerated and may result in disqualification. (Or ejection from the park!)
- Only your team members or the Event Staff may write on the game sheet and at no time can you show the Game Sheet to anyone not associated with The Disney Challenge unless specifically notated on the challenge itself. Asking cast members for help is acceptable and may be necessary, however, showing them the challenge will be grounds for disqualification. Also, just a warning: cast members get bored and sometimes like to lie. Ask them at your own risk.
- Each team must play individually. Teaming up with or stealing answers from other challengers is not allowed. Asking for or trading answers is just stupid.
- Everything your team is required to obtain during the challenge is either free of charge, or money will be included to purchase an item. Stealing anything is unacceptable.
- Front of the line passes, faked injuries, or anything giving your team an unfair time advantage that other teams may not have will not be allowed. If you have a legitimate injury, or a questionable advantage, please speak with Dave prior to the beginning of the challenge. This is a physical as well as mental game and a point handicap may have to be imposed. Also many of the questions from the attractions can be found in the queues so you might be doing yourself a disservice in jumping the line.

A Note on the Rules- The Disneyland Resort is a big place, and teams cannot be supervised throughout the day. The challenge is played on the Honor System that all terms laid out in these Official Rules will be followed. The Disney Challenge was designed to be as much fun as it is challenging. Breaking the rules will take the fun out of it for everyone. If any team is found to have broken any of these rules they may lose points or possibly be disqualified.

Good Luck and Have Fun!
