Santa's Gift

Team Name: _____

29) Has it ever occurred to you that Santa spends all his time giving out presents and aside from some stale cookies and spoiled milk, he never really gets any gifts in return? I know that's not the spirit of Christmas, but it's time Santa got a little something for his trouble. Am I right?

By now, you've probably figured out that Santa is on the Event Crew. So this challenge is dedicated to him. Within your packet you've probably noticed a few odd items that are not part of the game sheets. Using all, some, or none of those items, your task is to build Santa an ornament he can hang on his tree up in the North Pole.

Here are the rules. You can use the items provided along with ANY item that can be found for FREE within Downtown Disney and the Hotels to construct and decorate the ornament. You can also use anything you brought with you to decorate it, hold it together, and make it unique. (Just please don't use condiments for color or anything like that!) Turn it in with your event packet at the Finish Line and score a cool 25 Points! (If it can't fit inside your envelope, just turn it in along with it, and MAKE SURE YOUR TEAM NAME IS ON IT!)

However, since this challenge is for Santa, he will be picking out his favorites and awarding Secret Bonus Points to the top 3. So there is a little competition involved to make this more interesting.

Remember, the object is to spend absolutely no money. (Home made gifts are the best, aren't they?)
